Sir, I have the honor to forward herein an application for the necessary tickets to the various events in connection with the Durbar at Delhi and beg you will kindly forward it to the Honble The Resident. I beg to state in this connection that having been away in the interior of the District on Official duty, I lost sight of the Official Notification requiring applications for the tickets being made before the fixed date. I beg that you may kindly recommend for the grant of of the tickets to me even though my application is somewhat late of.

I may perhaps remind you that I wrote to you privately on the subject sometime ago. I now understand that I should have applied to you officially.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
